Host Spotlight

Pastor Dr. Margaret B. Wilson

Dr. Margaret B. Wilson was born to the late Elouise Bright, and Victor Teal, she is the second eldest of nine siblings. In December of 1969 she married her high school sweetheart Brother James Wilson; to this union they have three children Sharon, Edward and James. They have thirteen grandchildren, two great grandchildren, two daughter-in-laws and one son-in-law.

Dr. Wilson was raised in the New Hill O.F.W.B Church family. It was at the age of thirteen she received the Lord Jesus as her Savior and officially joined the fellowship. Dr. Wilson went on to serve the Lord in various capacities during her time at New Hill including choir president for 32yrs, pastor's aide member, lifelong member of the YPCL, the missionary board for twenty five years, the mother board and kitchen committee,

It was under the leadership of then pastor, Bishop Cliffous Artis that Dr. Wilson accepted the call of God on her life. In May of 1995 she preached her initial sermon, from the gospel of St. John the 11th chapter her topic was "HE'S AN ON TIME GOD".

In November 2004 Dr. Wilson was called to pastor the Harnett Chapel Church, where the word of God is being preached, love is being shown and God gets the glory. Pastor Wilson desires to please the Lord with all her heart, soul and mind.

Harnett Chapel O.F.W.B.C

Church History:

Harnett Chapel Church was founded April 14, 1947. Originally service was held only one Sunday a month but over the past 65 years the Lord has blessed the ministry to increase service to 1st and 3rd Sundays.

Under the leadership of our pastor Dr. Margaret B. Wilson, God has blessed this ministry to undertake a renovation project, this is just one of many improvements that has been made.

We as a church body understand that without the Lord's leading and guiding we would be lost. That is why we are eternally grateful to God for his keeping power.

Thanks be to God, for all the wonderful things He has done!.

Church Mission:

One body many members building Gods kingdom through unity.

Outreach:

Harnett Chapel offers prayer to the sick and shut in. We have also provided food when needed.

In everything that has been done our Pastor always puts God first. One of her favorite sayings is "LET ME PRAY ABOUT IT".

Thanks to the Cape Fear District Union for allowing Harnett Chapel to serve you.

Love and peace be unto you from God our Father.

Our Preachers

Elder Nafiskas Covington

Elder Nafiskas Covington is the wife of Thomas Covington and the mother of Sebastian McClain, Courtney McClain and Brittany McClain. She is the proud grandmother of Emayah. Elder Covington is the daughter of the late John and Blondell Johnson. At present, she is an associate minister at St. Mary's Free Will Baptist Church in Apex under Pastor Willie Hunter Jr.

After years of running and working in all other areas of the church, she finally answered the call on her life in 1999 with the loving guidance of the late Mother Clea Ester Raines and Conference Mother Effie Mae Harris. Her greatest supporter was her mother, Blondell, who followed her throughout her ministry until her health failed and subsequently transitioned to be with our Father.

Elder Covington has an enormous passion for young people. Most of her adult life has been working with young people in her church and through the YPCL Convention. In 2009, she retired from the Wake County Public School System as a Special Program teacher after 36 years of service. Her heart is set to raise up our young generation through mentoring, teaching, preaching, listening and caring. Our children are facing major crises that have never been experienced before. We must lift up our young people so they will face these challenges with hope, faith and perseverance. It is our duty as leaders and God fearing believers to help our children find their life purpose as well as help them recover and rise above storms that have penetrated their lives.

If at anytime you wish to categorize Elder Covington, she would say that she is a crusader for children. Her mantra is "Don't mess with my Children!"

Minister Sarah Kelly

Minister Sarah Kelly was born on Sept. 17, 1958 in Dunn, North Carolina to the late Al Jr. Covington and Jacqueline McAllister, the fourth of five children. She attended public schools in Johnston County and graduated from South Johnston High School, in Four Oaks, North Carolina on June 9, 1977. On May 28, 1979, she was married to Jerry Lewis Kelly. She was born again on June 21, 1999 at Mt. Pisgah Harnett OFWB Church in Erwin, North Carolina. They have two daughters, Shenise and Senita 'Kelly. She has one stepson Kelvin Snead. In addition, she has six grandchildren and fifteen step grandchildren. Her step-mother is Sister Geneva Covington of Benson, North Carolina.

She serves under the leadership of Pastor Reginald S. Hinton at Mt. Pisgah Harnett OFWB Church in Erwin, North Carolina. She serves in the Prayer Conditioning Ministry, the Senior Choir, the Mass Choir, the Grief Ministry, the Culinary Ministry, the Home Mission Ministry and has served on the Recognition Ministry. She is also a member of the Conference Mass Choir.

On March 16, 2008 she preached her initial sermon at Mt. Pisgah Harnett. She furthered her education in ministry at the Ministers' Training Institute in Sanford, North Carolina under several teachers: Bishop Reginald Hinton, Bishop Fred Clarida, Pastor Coleman Elliott and Elder Bennie Jones.

She was employed at ConAgra Foods in Garner, North Carolina for nine years as a Lead person over the packing department until the company closed. She loves sports - football, basketball, softball and volleyball. Her favorite scripture is Proverbs 3: 5-6, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy paths."

She lives in Dunn, North Carolina with her husband. She truly loves the Lord
