From the Desk of Bishop Reginald S. Hinton

It is with great joy, excitement and in the matchless name of Jesus that I greet each of you and welcome you to the 146th Session of our Annual Conference. As we look in the rear view mirror of experience, we can attest without reservation that God has been good to us and we bless Him for the wonderful privilege of being able to fellowship again with our co-laborers in the Gospel.

We serve an incredibly awesome God and we thank Him that He provided everything we need to accomplish His work in the earth. In a season when the forces of the enemy are as active as ever, God equips us not only to engage the enemy, but to triumph in every conflict. Our conference theme, Gifted For Service, reflects the fact that God endowed His children with the necessary gifts for effective ministry as we share the life-changing message that has been entrusted to us.

In looking at the world around us, we see fields that are white unto harvest and it would be a shame to allow the crop to waste away in the fields. The Apostle Paul indicated that the body of Christ has been gifted by the Holy Ghost to be a blessing to one another and the world at large; therefore, we are strategically positioned to reap a bountiful harvest for the kingdom of God. It is important that none of us minimize the gifts that we have, but instead commit ourselves to stirring up the gift that is within us. Ministry is so much easier when we flow in the Spirit and operate in the areas where He has ordained for us to serve.

In addition to the wonderful fellowship opportunity that the Conference affords, we bless God that this session includes insightful instruction regarding the use of our spiritual gifts as we serve the Lord in this present age. I am convinced that when the benediction is given at the conclusion of this session, we will be fortified for the fight as we embrace the reality that we have been gifted for service.

I solicit your prayers and support for the Conference. Please pray that the anointing will flow freely, that God's people will be blessed abundantly and most importantly, that our glorious God will be exalted in all that we do. Pray for Bishop and Elect Lady Clarida, for the Executive Board, pastors, every preacher, presenter, choir, committee members, attendees and for my wife and me.

May the Lord bless you and keep you in His care.

Bishop Reginald S. Hinton

Greetings to all of my Father's children, it is with the love of Jesus that I greet and welcome each of you to the 146th Session of our Annual Conference. I pray that you have been experiencing the blessings of the Lord since our last gathering. We are again excited by our theme "Gifted For Service." I agree with the Apostle Paul in thanking God that He has counted you and me worthy to be a part of what He is doing.

We are in great position to make tremendous impact in our local churches, communities and ultimately to the kingdom of God. During a time when the world is so divided on spiritual and moral issues, we must recognize our oneness as the Body of Christ and utilize our collective efforts for the greater good. In His high priestly prayer Jesus prayed that His followers would be as one as He and the Father were one. In spite of the differences that may exist, and the challenges that we face and will continue to face, we must continue to encourage one another, pray for one another and never forget that we are to love one another. This love can best be demonstrated through our service one to the other.

The Apostle Paul admonished the saints at Corinth to understand the importance of every member's contribution to the ministry. Each of us has been given a gift by the Holy Spirit. Isn't it interesting to know that the gift is ours, but it is not for us, but rather for those that we love through service. God has called each of us and has equipped us for His service. Our service to God can be more effectively accomplished collectively rather than individually. As we prepare for this annual session, let us commit ourselves to the work of Christ's church.

If the church is to be the church that God has called it to be, it will be accomplished when every member realizes their place and purpose within the local ministry. The Apostle Paul reminds the church at Corinth that each member is important and needful in helping the church to fulfill its' God given purpose in the earth. Pray for our leader Bishop Hinton and his companion First Lady Janet and their family. Pray for our pastors, conference officers and conference members. Pray for my family and me and that God will bless this annual session like never before and that He will be glorified in all that is done.

God bless you and keep you is my prayer.

Bishop Frederick E. Clarida, Sr.
