The Cape Fear District Union shall fully support our Presiding Prelate and the Leadership of our Annual Conference.

Heb 13:17

District Union

The Cape Fear District Union shall promote fellowship among the member churches of this great union.

1 John 1:7

Local Church

The Cape Fear District Union shall endeavor to be a resource to the member churches supporting the direction and vision that God has given to the church through the local Pastor.

2 Tim 4:5

Host Spotlight

Pastor Odetta Batts

Elder Odetta Batts is a God fearing woman standing on the “Promises of God”. She is a believer with a solid foundation that is rooted and grounded in Philippians 4:13, “I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me”.

Elder Batts is a native of Johnston County. She is the daughter of the late Deacon Edgar and Mother Ada Williams. She has four sisters, Emma, Edna, Linda and Mattie and special memories of her sister, the late honorable Elder Dorothy Watson.

Elder Batts is married to her loving, supportive and great encourager for many years, Brother Larry Batts. God has blessed them with one daughter, Tamika and a son-in-law, Brandon Sanders of Clayton. They are the proud grandparents of three grandchildren that they truly adore, Aaliyah, Brandon and Tiara.

Elder Batts, is a member of Smith Chapel church in Four Oaks, North Carolina where she is under the leadership of Bishop Frederick Clarida. After many years of sharing the word of God, she finally accepted the calling of the Lord and later became ordained as an Elder. She preached her initial sermon in the year of 2003. Since that time, she has continued to be obedient to her Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ. A sought after speaker for many Women’s Conferences. Elder Batts has studied theology at the Bible Study Fellowship of Smithfield, North Carolina and was one of the first students to join Minister Training Institute (MTI) through our Cape Fear Southwestern Conference.

Elder Batts, being an anointed vessel and a servant of the “Most High God”, accepted the call to pastor the body of believers known as Mingo Hill OFWB Church Dunn, North Carolina in July 2014.

Mingo Hill OFWB

Mingo Hill Church has gone through a season of marking time as we have waited and depended on the Lord to lead us through this period of transition. During this season, we are covered by the Grace of God, through Christ Jesus. Under the spiritual direction and leadership of our spiritual leaders, Bishop Hinton and Bishop Clarida, excellent men and women of God were sent to preach and to teach the Word of God to us. This helped us to stay on the right path; to fast and pray for God’s direction and continue to worship and praise God. Our church family has now been blessed to have a under-shepherd, divinely ordained and sent by God to be our pastor - to preach and teach the Gospel of Christ. Focused on reaching and winning souls for the up-building of the Kingdom of God. Mingo Hill Church is truly committed to “going forward” in Jesus’ name.

MINGO HILL VISION STATEMENT

Our vision and desire is to be a church that people are able to find refuge, a church that embraces the full Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our focus is on winning souls by preaching, teaching and reaching, fulfilling the Great Commission.

We are walking in the manifested promise!
