*From the Desk of

Giving honor to our great Triune God, I am ecstatic in greeting my brothers and sisters as we prepare for our 150th Annual Conference. We have been celebrating God's goodness all year long as we commemorate this sesquicentennial year.

Our theme for this conference as well as the entire year is, Great Is Thy Faithfulness, which reflects God's unwavering commitment to our conference family from its inception until now. It is in keeping with our conviction that apart from God, we would not be celebrating this monumental milestone. God has been with us through the joys as well as the heartaches that we have experienced and is still a very present help as we prepare for another Annual Conference.

In celebrating our 150th conference, we will begin on Monday night, November 6, and continue through Sunday, November 12, 2017. I encourage each of you to make a special effort to be a part of this celebration of our great God. We have been blessed to produce a program that we believe will bless all who join us in this powerful worship experience. We believe God will honor us with His presence and all of the bountiful blessings that He has in store for us. Therefore, I want each of you to come expecting a great move of God. Come with thanksgiving and with praise as we express to God our appreciation for what He has done on our behalf. God has been faithful to us and we ought to be faithful to Him.

I urge you to begin praying right now for this conference to be one of the best that we have ever experienced, with God's anointing filling the place all week. Pray for every preacher, presenter, praise team, and choir to be used for the glory of God. Pray for our conference family and our friends to have an urgency to come and be a part of what God is doing. Pray for Bishop and First Lady Clarida, the Executive Board and all of our committees. Pray for First Lady Hinton and me that God's hand will remain on us and guide us through this great gathering of God's people.

Bishop Reginald S. Hinton, Sr.

Greetings to All My Father's Children,

I pray that as you are reading this letter that you are experiencing the blessings of our Great God. It has been twelve long months since we last met as an annual conference and since that time many things have happened. But I believe that we can all say as the song writer said "we've had some good days and we've had some bad days, but our good days out weigh our bad days, and for that reason we won't complain." This is indeed an exciting time for the Original Cape Fear and Southwestern Free Will Baptist Conference Family. Throughout this year we have celebrated the Sesquicentennial of our conference. This has and will be a year to remember.

We should feel extremely blessed that God saw fit to allow us to witness this great time in the history of our conference. Many of our faithful members of long ago prayed that what we are experiencing would come to pass. For one hundred and fifty years God has sustained us as He has demonstrated His faithfulness to this body of believers. Our theme echoes our sentiments "GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS." Our presiding prelate, Bishop Reginald S. Hinton was inspired by God to use this as our theme as we reflect on the goodness of the Lord toward the annual conference.

As we celebrate our churches, celebrate our conference family, we acknowledge that the greatest celebration is that of our Faithful God. For as the scriptures declare, "Had it not been for the Lord who was on our side." Yes, God has proven Himself time and time again. Not only has God sustained us, but He has also kept us together in unity and love. We thank God for the faithful saints that have helped to make the conference what it is today. We give all praise to God for the past leadership that served our conference body. And certainly we thank God for Bishop Reginald S. Hinton for the unselfish, unwavering support and guidance that he has given the conference through his leadership.

As we proceed to our 150th conference session, let's get excited, let's talk it up. Let us encourage all church members to make every effort to be in attendance this year. Let us also pray for our annual conference and this session. Not only do we celebrate God for His past faithfulness but we also celebrate Him in advance for His future faithfulness to our conference. Pray that this will be the best conference in the history of our coming together. As always keep our president, Bishop Hinton and First Lady Janet Hinton in your prayers.

Bishop Frederick E. Clarida, Sr.
