*From the Desk of

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. It is with the joy of the Lord that I greet my brothers and sisters as we prepare for another life-changing encounter that we know as the Annual Conference.

I am excited that God has impressed upon us the theme, More Than Conquerors, for this session. We live in a time when the forces of the enemy have increased the intensity of their attacks. The church is under siege from the media, the courts and society at large, including mean-spirited assaults that appear to be having a negative impact on our commitment to the principles and precepts found in the Word of God. Unfortunately, we are seeing defections from our places of steadfastness among members of the body of Christ, with compromise becoming the inroad for diluting the clear teachings of Jesus.

Lest we lose hope, we have an assurance in the Word of God that we not only win, but we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. The Apostle Paul wrote these words during a time of intense persecution for the fledging faith that we embrace today. In spite of intense opposition and deadly persecution, the church continued to thrive and have an eternal impact on those who heard the gospel of Jesus Christ. Paul was able to encourage his fellow believers at Rome by letting them know that there was nothing that could separate them from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. We rejoice that because of Jesus, we have the benefit of God's blessings as we deal with uncertain times.

I am fully persuaded that our time together will be one that encourages, educates, empowers and excites God's people. I am counting on each of you to come with the spirit of expectation as we join in with our brothers and sisters and experience the power of our great God on display. I do solicit your prayers for the Executive Board, every preacher and presenter during this session that God would use us mightily for His glory. Pray for one another as well as we trust God to do great things in every person's life who joins us. In spite of what it looks like, we are More Than Conquerors!!

Greetings to All of My Father's Children,

It with the joy of Jesus that I greet each of you. I pray that you have been enjoying the wonderful blessings of the Lord. I welcome each of you to the 148th Session of our Annual Conference. God has continued to prove His faithfulness since we last met and we are excited about what He has in store for each of us as we gather together for this joyous occasion. The theme God has given our leader and the theme throughout the week of conference is "More Than Conquerors," Romans 8:37. The Apostle Paul reassures the believers at Rome of the indelible love that Christ has for them. Isn't it comforting to know that this same love was not confined to the believers at Rome, but it has been transferred to all that believe on His name?

Yes, there is trouble on every hand, but God is with us. Yes we are living in a world of decaying immorality, but we have hope of a new earth and a new heaven. The attacks of Satan are increasing day by day and our news media has no good news, but the Holy Spirit gives us strength in the midst of it all. In spite of all that we face we celebrate in knowing that His grace is still sufficient for the times that we endure. Be encouraged my brothers and sisters; we can have confidence in knowing that Christ's love assures us that we are victorious through His victory over the grave, death and hell. We can rejoice in knowing that we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us and gave Himself for us.

As we gather together, let us prepare our hearts and our minds to receive all that God has purposed for us during this conference. Pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to saturate our leader Bishop Hinton, ask God's blessings upon all that will share during our time together. Let us seek His face as we rejoice in knowing that we are more than conquerors. Remember our families and each pastor and their family and let us pray one for the other. God bless each of you is my prayer.

In His Service,
