From the Desk of Bishop Frederick E. Clarida, Sr.

Greetings to All My Father's Children. We greet you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We pray that each of you has been experiencing the blessings of the Lord since we last met.

We are indeed excited about this 155th Session of our Annual Conference. Through all that we have faced as a conference and as the Body of Christ, we rejoice that God is allowing us to come together one more time. Our theme is We Shall Not Be Moved. Hebrews 2:1 says, "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip."

As we move forward in God's agenda, we must not allow the challenges, the difficulties and even this pandemic to move us from our place and our purpose in Christ. As believers in Christ, we must hold our position and be ready to give an answer to every man about the hope that lieth in us. So many have fallen away from the House of God and drifting away from the fellowship of the saints.

We must recognize that any mindset that isolates Christians is a trick of the enemy. As a conference family, it is vitally important that we continue to hold fast to the true word of God. And God's word tells us not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together. As we come together this, let us be excited about what God is going to do among the saints. Encourage others to come and let's celebrate what our Great God is doing and has done in our lives.

Pray for Bishop and First Lady McKoy. Pray for Bishop and 1st Lady Hinton. Pray for everyone that God will use in making this conference the best. And lastly pray for me and First Lady Clarida that the will of God be done in our lives. We look forward to seeing you and witnessing the blessings of the Lord in the land of the living. God bless you and God keep you is our prayer.

Sincerely,

From the Desk of Bishop Wayne E. McKoy, Sr.

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ.

First, let us take a moment to give God thanks for allowing us to see another Annual Conference. As Paul addressed the church at Corinth in I Corinthians 1: 3-4, Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God, which is given you by Jesus Christ, I welcome each of you to our 155th Annual Conference.

Many things have happened during the past year, but through it all God is still good. I am thankful that he has allowed us to come together to fellowship with one another one more time. Hebrews 2:1 points out that those who have heard the truth and have faith in Christ, we must guard ourselves from slipping from the truth. But as for us our theme says it well “We Shall Not Be Moved.”

To every pastor, I commend each of you for continuing to move your congregation forward even in times such as these. Many church members have chosen to worship from a distance or ceased to worship at all, but you have stood firm and declared, “We Shall Not Be Moved.” May God bless you all.

Finally, I ask each of you to be in prayer for our Presiding Prelate Bishop Frederick Clarida Sr., First Lady Clarida, our President Emeritus Bishop Reginald Hinton Sr., First Lady Hinton, the Executive Board and all who make up this great Annual Conference. We look forward to seeing you all at the 155th Session of our Annual Conference. First Lady McKoy and I solicit your prayers as we continue to serve this awesome Annual Conference. God Bless

In His Service

Bishop Wayne E. McKoy Sr.

From the Desk of Bishop Reginald S. Hinton, Sr.

It's Conference Time!! Heartfelt greetings to all my brothers and sisters in Christ. The opportunity to come together during our Annual Conference is reminiscent of days gone by when mothers would stand on the porch and summon the family to eat with those familiar words, "It's supper time." It is indeed Conference time, and I am excited to be able to come together again with God's people for another Spirit-filled session of inspiration and impartation.

God led our Presiding Prelate, Bishop Fred Clarida, Sr. to select the compelling theme, We Shall Not Be Moved. In a season when foundations that were seemingly unshakeable experiencing fatal fissures, it is critical for the body of Christ to have the resounding resolve reflected in our theme. We have seen a rising tide of complacency in the body of Christ that has swept away so many of us who served God for many years. The covid-19 pandemic has shown us where we truly stand with God and unfortunately, some of us have succumbed to the enemy's brutal bombardment of our faith.

Despite the critical casualties, all is not lost. There is a remnant that is still steadfast and unmovable in our faith in God. There are saints who are more determined than ever to continue fighting the good fight of faith. There are believers who embrace the lyrics of the song the saints of old used to sing, "I shall not, I shall not be moved. I shall not, I shall not be moved. Just like a tree planted by the water, I shall not be moved."

It is my earnest desire that our coming together will be a time of renewed fellowship with our brothers and sisters, a time of encouragement for God's people and the opportunity to be strengthened together as we press forward holding up the blood-stained banner for our Lord. Let us pray for Bishop and First Lady Clarida, Bishop and First Lady McKoy, and the Executive Board that God will be preeminent in all that is said and done. Pray for every preacher, presenter, and program participant to be used mightily by God. Pray for the safety of every attendee. Pray for the saints that we will make it our aim to attend every service possible and that God is glorified in all that takes place.

Sincerely,
President Emeritus
